

Break out

pioneer gathering

"A gathering of mission-minded practitioners listening to the Spirit and conferring about God's work. It's going to be superb!"
Rev'd Dr Martyn Atkins

"I knew I needed to come and be with some likeminded and lighthearted people."
"I love it and come every year. Wonderful, inspiring and supportive."
"It is hard to put into words how much I enjoyed this year's gathering."

Comments from previous gatherings
"Conferences like this which bring together pioneer ministers are vital for the development of God's mission."
Rt Rev'd Stephen Cottrell

The annual meeting place for pioneers

— an opportunity to be together, learn from each other and interact with our main speaker Stuart Murray, as we engage with the vital issue of discipleship.

Stuart is an urban church planter, trainer and consultant. He was a founder of Urban Expression and has written many key texts on pioneering.

Break out pioneer gathering

Weds 11– Fri 13 Sept 2013
High Leigh Conference Centre
Hoddeston EN11 8SG

At this year's gathering we will be looking at the theme of discipleship, with a particular focus on moving from a community gathering to discipling.

The gathering will open with input from our speaker Stuart Murray. All of Thursday will be given over to discovering what we are learning in our own contexts about discipleship through discussion, interviews and learning groups.
