

Faith in Rural Communities: Contributions of Social Capital to Community Vibrancy

Defra has funded a major research project on the contribution of people of faith to rural community vibrancy

The study has been undertaken by Coventry University in association with the Arthur Rank Centre and the Church of England National Rural Officer

The research report is to be launched at a

Consultative Workshop
Thursday 19 October 2006
1100 - 1515
The Arthur Rank Centre
Stoneleigh Park, Warwickshire, CV8 2LZ
Registration and refreshments from 1030
Lunch provided

- ◆ The researchers will present their findings
 - ◆ Participants will have the opportunity to discuss the findings and the implications for policy and practice
- Keynote speakers

The Rt. Revd. Michael Langrish, Bishop of Exeter
Professor Malcolm Moseley, Gloucestershire University

Places at the Consultative Workshop are limited. There is a charge of £25, payable in advance, for attendance at the workshop. If you wish to attend please print out this flyer, complete your personal details as requested below and send by post only with a cheque for £25 payable to the Arthur Rank Centre at Stoneleigh Park, Warwickshire, CV8 2LZ. Receipts will be issued by email only

✂.....

I enclose a cheque for £25 payable to the Arthur Rank Centre I would like a receipt

Full Name _____ Organisation _____

Email address _____ Phone number _____

Special dietary (or other) requirements _____

Address _____

Signed _____ Date _____

For queries please contact Katrina on Katrinas@rase.org.uk [024 7685 3060]