

'Play your Part'

Keen to help people explore how they live out their faith in all aspects of life?

Want to do something different in Lent?

Looking for a tool to support whole life discipleship?

If so, this interactive booklet will be of interest to you.

'Play your Part' encourages Christians to take a fresh look at their life and consider:

- Why am I here?
- What has God created me for?
- What does this mean for me as a Christian today?
- How can I become more Christ-like in all that I do?

It can help people in your Parish, Church, and Faith Community to play their part by finding and fulfilling the unique role and potential that they have in life as a Christian.

This booklet can be used individually or as part of a small group study or course within your Church.

Have you got skilled group leaders with a good knowledge of the bible? Willing participants with open minds?

This booklet could be for you!

Feedback from Church leaders who have used 'Play your Part' personally and within their Parish/Church:

"Many congratulations on such an excellent outcome of all your hard work. It looks superb and is a breath of fresh air. It is ground breaking and I hope it gets the circulation and success it richly deserves and I hope and pray that through it, many lives will be transformed".

Rev Canon Andrew Clitherow, Chaplain to the Queen

"I am very happy to recommend this material for use in churches. It is an open-ended, all-age resource that competent facilitation can adapt to most needs".

Eric Corcoran – Deacon, Bridge Chapel, Liverpool

"I think this is by a very long way the best thing I've seen to help Christians think in a godly way about the practicalities of career choice and using their skills and gifts in a way that glorifies God. I'm very impressed and will be recommending this guide to lots of people at church."

Andrew Evans, Minister, Christ Church Liverpool
