Connexional Fresh Expressions Missioner (seconded to the Fresh Expressions team)

Full time appointment

We are seeking a lay or ordained member of the Methodist Church; a team player with a passion for mission, rooted in God and with excellent communication skills to succeed the Revd. Pete Pillinger as the senior Methodist within the Fresh Expressions team.

Fresh Expressions was established in 2004 as an initiative of the Archbishops of the Church of England supported by the Methodist Council. The aim of the initiative is to encourage sustainable fresh expressions of church across every part of the Methodist Church and the Church of England.

The main focus of this role is on advocacy and training across the connexion and ecumenically, developing policies to support change through the Fresh Ways working group and encouraging the growth of area strategy teams.

For an informal conversation about the role please telephone Steven Croft on 01865 311838.

Starting salary: £36,330 per annum. For ministers and deacons of the Methodist Church, the usual arrangements will apply.

Closing date for receipt of application: 25 September 2008 by 12noon
Interviews: 10 October 2008 in London
