Terry Jones is a Mission Adviser with the Mission Department at BUGB headquarters in Didcot.

He became a Christian at 15, served in the RAF, and trained at Spurgeons. He has pastored churches at Ashford, Middlesex (13 yrs) and Toxteth (15 yrs).

His passions include: facilitating inner-city mission; visiting other pastors and churches; impossible church partnerships; and not being content with the status quo!

Terry is married to Ann (44 yrs) and they have 3 children and 3 grandchildren. Since 2006 his responsibilities have been extended to include 3rd Age Seniors.

Cost of the day, including Lunch and refreshments, £10.00. Please make a cheque payable to Outlook Trust and send it to us with the tear off slip below.

VOX is a new forum with representatives from Outlook Trust, EA, Faithworks, Church Army, Mission Care, Regenerate-RISE, Keychange Charity, Christian Council on Ageing, Rob Merchant author of 'Pioneering the Third Age' and other individuals concerned with the churches response to supporting and working with older people in faith development and mission
